Incident Summary: Representative of Family Dollar stated 3 suspects were in line at the register located by the front door of the business. The first male (Suspect #1) proceeded to come up to the register and engage the cashier to purchase a gift cards. Midway through the transaction the second male (Suspect #2) points towards the tobacco products and asks the cashier to get one for him. While the cashier had her back turned Suspect #2 reaches over the counter and hits the cash register screen a few times causing the drawer open. The cashier turned back around and realized the drawer was open and closed it. She then proceeded to complete a transaction for each of the males. After the transactions were completed the males left out the front door. By looking at the transaction history it was discovered a Game Stop gift card, Apple gift card, and a Vanilla card were each loaded with $500.00 ea
